

Minutes of the Special Meeting
Bridgewater Township Hall
March 22, 2007

DRAFT

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 with the pledge of allegiance and all Board members and 4 citizens present. Supervisor announced she called this special meeting in accordance with the Open Meetings Act, being posted on March 20, 2007 on both the website and at the Township Hall for the purpose to discuss the proposed budget and sewer billing question.

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION

A comment was made to clarify information a resident gave to the Board.

A comment was made that the township Board needs to decide a philosophy about who pays the fees for review, the Township or the applicant. Any resident who is requiring review should be pay them. Applicants should be paying their fair share. The Board needs to clarify how they want the P.C. to carry out their work with this budget.

A comment was made that some tasks may be held up to the Board if the funds are not available for payments.

Board reviewed budget by line item.
